

Discussion Questions for A Barroom View of Love

- How did you feel about Katherine as a person? Where did you resonate with her and her reactions?
- What's the significance of money in the story? What does it mean to Katherine?
- Is this a religious book? A spiritual book? What difference do you see between religion and spirituality? Did the author address this?
- What do you think about spiritual awakening? Is it real? A one time occurrence? An on-going process?
- Owen is a sociopath. How would Katherine diagnose herself? Her mother? David?
- What did you think of the ashram's "It's-time-for-you-to-leave" policy?
- How do you think Panduranga would have greeted Owen?
- How would you characterize Katherine's attitude toward sex? David's? Do they differ? How?